Hospice care at home, thanks to our readers

By John Goode

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

PATIENTS with terminal illnesses will be able to get care in their own homes thanks to the overwhelming generosity of Weekly News readers.

St Nicholas Hospice Care will launch its new community team next Tuesday.

The initial start-up cash will come from the Weekly News Hospice at Home appeal, which is nearing its target of £40,000 – just a year after it was launched.

Generous individuals, organisations and community groups throughout the Haverhill area have been backing the appeal by holding fundraising events and giving donations.

The latest major money-spinner was last Friday's sell-out premiere screening of the hit film, Marley & Me at Haverhill's Cineworld, which raised nearly £1,700.

Ian Norris, fundraiser for the Bury St Edmunds-based hospice, said: "It's gone fantastically well. It shows the amount of support we have in Haverhill."

Nigel Brookes, editor of the Weekly News series, said: "We have been amazed by the generosity of our readers who have supported this pioneering scheme."

Around 70 per cent of hospice users come from Haverhill, where the incidence of cancer is higher than other areas.

The new team will provide support and advice to patients and their carers, and hands-on care for people in their last weeks of life.

The service will be one of the country's first truly multi-disciplinary community teams.

Hospice staff, including clinical nurse specialists, registered nurses and nursing assistants, will liaise with GPs, district nurses and social care teams to provide care, all co-ordinated by the hospice.

They will be further supported by the hospice's family support, complementary therapy, chaplaincy and rehabilitation staff, as well as by voluntary agencies such as Crossroads.

A launch event will be held at the main hospice site in Bury St

Edmunds on Tuesday.

Health and social care professionals have been invited to a drop-in information morning, giving them the chance to meet the new team and learn about their plans.

A formal presentation will be made at 10.30am, and will include patient/family members talking about what the service will mean to them.

Trevor Farrington, community hospice team manager, said: "Our team, in partnership with professional and lay carers, will provide unique, co-ordinated end of life care.

"St Nicholas Hospice Care believes strongly that patients should have a choice in where they receive our support."

"Our new way of working will enable this choice, which is a key focus of the government's End of Life Strategy. Living and being cared for at home whilst supported by the appropriate professionals is central to our vision."

Marley pulls in crowds and cash

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

MOVIE fans have given the Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice At Home Appeal a massive £1,660 boost.

Hundreds of people flocked to Haverhill Cineworld last Friday for a special premiere screening of Hollywood blockbuster Marley & Me, with all proceeds from ticket sales – and extra cash collected on the night – being donated to the £40,000 appeal.

Paul Weldon, the cinema's general manager, says he was delighted with the total and thrilled at the level of support shown by residents.

He said: "When we first planned the event we started planning it in one of our smaller screens, but within days of putting the tickets up for sale we realised it wouldn't be big enough.

"Eventually we billed it for our biggest screen, and sold out of tickets. It's had an amazing response, and all the money raised is going to a fantastic charity.

"We are thrilled to be able to do our bit to help such a good community cause – we want to be part of our local community and this is one way we are trying to do that.

"We would like to thank all of the companies who have donated items to the goodie bags given out tonight, and to 20th Century Fox for allowing us to premiere the movie two weeks early."

The Hospice at Home Appeal has already raised more than £35,000, and all the money will go towards providing home care for patients with serious illnesses.

Trish Robson, of Elmhurst Close, was one of the 265 lucky people who managed to secure tickets to the screening.

She said: "We bought the tickets because it's a local charity and we like to support it.

"But we've come and had a lovely night out too, so it's been nice to do something enjoyable and help at the same time."

Abby Hunt, of St

Nicholas Hospice, was at the screening on Friday, and says she can't wait to see the service up and running.

She said: "We are so close to our target now, we just need to keep going.

"But we couldn't do this without the support of local people, and this needs to be an ongoing fundraising process.

"We are really grateful to Cineworld for putting on this event – it's a fun way of supporting such a worthwhile cause."

■ Haverhill mayor Cllr Les Ager is organising a charity dance in support of our Hospice At Home Appeal.

The Mayor's Charity Dance will be held on Friday, April 3, at the Grampian Pavilion in Little Wratting.

There will be ballroom and sequence dancing to the Len Ebbage Band led by Roger Chinery.

Tickets, priced at £8.50, are available from Vicky Ward, the mayor's secretary, on (01440) 714140 or from Cllr Ager on (01440) 706981.

How can you help us hit the target?

ST NICHOLAS Hospice Care will launch its home service for the Haverhill and surrounding area next week, thanks to the generosity of our readers. But fundraising efforts are still ongoing. We are so close to our £40,000 target but we cannot reach it without your help – so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fund-raising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal. Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible.

If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause.

A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842. An on-line donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews, which also gives details of how to donate by text, and you can donate by phone on (01284) 715582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

New plants on roadside

A ROADSIDE hedge has been replanted more than 30 years after it was removed for proposed road improvements.

Nearly 20 volunteers as well as countryside project workers planted more than 360 shrubs, which will restore the hedge as a windbreak and wildlife habitat, at Sturmer, near Haverhill.

Jo Porth, of the Sturmer Village Hall charity, said: "It has taken over a year to negotiate and now it's planted. "The plants were part of the pledge by Lord Hanningfield, leader of Essex County Council, to have a quarter of a million trees planted in the county and it didn't cost us anything in monetary terms." Volunteers from Haverhill's East Town Park helped with the planting as well as representatives from the Dedham Vale Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and Stour Valley Project.

'Crackhouse' is shut down after police closure order

BY Stephen Exley

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk
A SUSPECTED drug den which made life a misery for neighbours has been shut down.

People living near the flat in Haverhill, which was littered with used needles, were plagued with frequent visits from addicts through the day and night, West Suffolk Magistrates' Court heard.

It granted a "crackhouse closure" order, banning heroin addict Ricky Preston from his home for three months.

Preston, 43, admitted he and his girlfriend had used the Class A substance at his home in Pentlow Hawke Close, but insisted he was not a dealer and had not allowed his addict friends to use drugs there.

Police officers recounted neighbours' tales of packages being exchanged for money on the street and visitors shouting threats and abuse, with some parents saying they were too frightened to let their children play outside.

Susan Fearn, chairman of the bench, said: "Such things are related with disruption and with nuisance to members of the public, particularly with visits from other users at all hours of the day or night."

Several Haverhill police officers who had visited the squalid flat told the court it was littered with drug-taking paraphernalia, including burnt spoons and squares of tinfoil.

Man jailed for dealing to prisoner

A MAN visiting a prisoner has ended up being jailed himself for supplying drugs.

Raymond Massicott was seen on CCTV at Highpoint Prison, near Haverhill, as he handed over a package containing heroin, cannabis and cannabis resin.

Massicott, 43, was given a four-year jail term at Ipswich Crown Court after he was convicted by a jury of supplying illegal drugs. He had denied the charges.

The court heard that prison staff were alerted when a CCTV operator saw Massicott handing over the package while seated at a table in the visiting area on November 17, 2007.

In that year, five kilograms (more than 10lb) of cannabis was seized at the prison along with 120 grams (about 4oz) of hard drugs and 217 mobile phones.

Jurors were told the drugs were in a cigar-shaped package wrapped in cling film which was found on the floor of the visitors' area.

After his arrest, Massicott, of Plaistow, East London, refused to answer any questions and denied all knowledge of the drugs recovered by prison staff.

... MP Richard Spring meets Eileen Calinescu who, along with local residents, is opposing plans to expand Sainsbury's in Haverhill.

Residents fight store extension

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

RESIDENTS have called in their MP over a battle against plans to extend a nearby supermarket.

Sainsbury's wants to extend its store at Hanchett End, Haverhill, to operate a home delivery service.

But people living nearby are opposing the scheme and have said "enough is enough" as the store has already been extended and has had a filling station added since it originally opened nearly 15 years ago.

Eileen Calinescu, of Horsham Close, Haverhill, invited West Suffolk MP Richard Spring to look at the problem for himself ahead of today's scheduled meeting of Edmundsbury Borough Council development control committee. The extension has been recommended for approval by council planners.

Mrs Calinescu said she was worried about extra traffic on Haycocks Road, which she described as a "slip road", plus increased disturbance for local residents up to 10pm when planners have said that activities associated with the delivery operation should stop.

"We don't want any more deliveries late at night. It's horrendous. I just think that Sainsbury's is being greedy," she said.

Neighbour Ron Davis said: "There will be roller-shutter doors on the extension which will be noisy."

He said seven parking spaces would also be lost from the store's car park if the plan got the green light.

Mr Spring who was "sympathetic" to residents' concerns, promised to take up the issue with the borough council but he said he had no direct influence over planning decisions.

She has suggested that the scheme can be approved subject to a 10pm time restriction and installation of an acoustic screen to reduce the noise heard by people living nearby.

More than 30 people have signed a petition against the extension and some of the residents are expected to attend the committee meeting.

A report by planner Gemma Pannell says that residents' complaints about late deliveries were investigated last year and Sainsbury's was found to be following the terms of previous planning permission.

She has suggested that the scheme can be approved subject to a 10pm time restriction and installation of an acoustic screen to reduce the noise heard by people living nearby.

Tiles go in thieves' raid on compound

ROOF tiles and wooden roofing batons worth around £1,150 have been stolen from a business compound.

Police said the thieves would have needed a vehicle to take away the items from the business in Hollands Road, Haverhill.

The theft was discovered at 8am last Thursday and is being linked with another theft of copper cylinders and other copper parts from a business in Helions Bumpstead Road, Haverhill, between 5.30pm on Monday and 7.30am on Tuesday.

The stolen property is worth about £100 and £200 damage was caused to the fence after a vehicle is believed to have been driven through it.

Anyone with information about the theft should call Pc Stuart Cirket or Sgt Darren Lamboll at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers, anonymously on 0800 555111.

Firms back bid to help jobseekers

COUNCILS and other organisations are backing a scheme aimed at helping people find work.

The Haverhill Learning Shop of West Suffolk College is helping to create an advice booklet to help people find free advice.

More than 4,000 enquiries have been dealt with at the Learning Shop since it opened in August, the majority relating to job seeking and updating skills.

Following a meeting with a number of organisations, St Edmundsbury Borough Council offered to cover the cost of printing a booklet listing organisations which offer free help. Haverhill Town Council also pledged £50 towards the project.

Learning Shop manager Barbara Adshead suggested that Haverhill Chamber of Commerce and other local businesses could be asked to donate one packet of A4 paper and the first packet was delivered from Lloyds TSB.

Comedy galore at village hall

CONJURING comic Ian Keable will stage his one-man show, combining humour and magic, at Ashen Village Hall.

The village hall committee has teamed up with Essex on Tour to bring the show to the village, which is said to be suitable for all aged 10 and up.

Ian, who formerly worked as accountant, is making a new career in show-business.

Tickets for the show, on Saturday, March 14, are £6.50 in advance (£6 concessions).

For full ticket details and bookings call Graham Howard (01440) 788025 or Lorna Dockerill (01440) 785535.

Students want to tell us all a story

STUDENTS at Haverhill's Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College are rehearsing for their performing arts showcase, Iwannatelyouastory.

The show is due to be staged on Thursday, March 19, featuring GCSE and BTEC students from Year 9 to 12.

It has been inspired by storytelling around the world, including African tales, scary German children's stories and British Children's television.

As well as using the spoken word, students will use dance, mime and comedy.

Tickets are available from the school office at £2.

Dedicated officer is county's finest

BY John Goode

A POLICE officer who has helped tackle anti-social behaviour in Haverhill's town centre has won a top award for the second time.

Pc Rupert Beynon, a member of the Haverhill Safer Neighbourhood Team (SNT), has been selected as the winner of the Sheepshanks Trophy – the annual award for the top police officer, or civilian staff member, in the Suffolk force.

He previously won the award, given for the most outstanding service to the local community, in 2004.

Pc Beynon, 38, has spent all of his 12 years service with the Suffolk force based in Haverhill.

He said: "I am very proud to have won this again, especially after finding out the quality of the other nominees.

"I was nominated by my inspector and sergeant but must also say thank you to the rest of the Safer Neighbourhood Team and partner agencies who have helped me throughout the year with various projects.

"I hope I have made the community in Haverhill feel even safer where they live."

■ VALUABLE RESOURCE . . . Pc Rupert Beynon on a "community walkabout" with residents to identify local crime hotspots.

Sgt Sarah Bartley who heads the Haverhill SNT, said: "Pc Beynon has an excellent working knowledge of Haverhill and its residents and is frequently called upon by colleagues to assist in identifying premises and people. "He is a very successful problem solver, but more importantly is well known within the community he polices, is valued by the public and the organisations he works with, and is a true ambassador for the ethos behind the safer neighbourhood zone."

His achievements include the successful implementation of a six-month dispersal order in and around Howe Road and Haverhill's Alcohol Free Zone.

He also helped bid for funding to purchase and install security fencing and gates for the town's cemetery, set up bases for the SNT at Haverhill Housing and at a local school worked with vulnerable young people through the Cangle Foyer project to run fishing trips for young people to learn about angling and respect for wildlife and the countryside.

He also organised action days to clear garages on Haverhill's estates, returning them to use and recovered stolen property.

Town councillor Anne Gower said: "I am delighted that Pc Beynon is the recipient of this award.

"It is a well deserved acknowledgement of the fact that he is not only an excellent ambassador for Suffolk Police but it also takes into account the many things he does in the background to support and encourage the people of Haverhill."

He will receive the award at a presentation later in the year.

Warning after 'lift home' offer

POLICE want to trace a driver who offered a nine-year-old boy a lift.

The boy is believed to have missed the school bus and was waiting at the bus stop in Mill Road, Kedington, just after 8am on Monday.

A Suffolk police spokeswoman said: "The boy was right to refuse the lift, even if the offer was genuine. We would like to speak to the man in connection with the incident."

She said that children should never accept lifts from strangers and should always report any suspicious people or vehicles to an adult or directly to the police.

The driver was a white man aged about 25.

He had short dark hair and was wearing a grey shirt.

He was driving a small black car.

Anyone with information about the incident should call Pc Christopher Spraggins at Clare police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555111.

Cash boost for Foodbank

HAVERHILL'S Foodbank project has been handed £250, thanks to the efforts of local church members and Christmas tree lovers. West End Congregational Church members delivered the cheque to Henry Wilson, from Foodbank, on Saturday. The cash was raised through the church's highly successful Christmas Tree Festival. Maureen Shirling-Rooke, from the church, said "This was the first ever Christmas Tree Festival in Haverhill and we were delighted with the response. "Our aim was to raise money for three charities - St Nicholas Hospice, the Children's Society and Haverhill Foodbank - and were very pleased with the outcome." Henry said: "Any contributions to the Foodbank is always welcome and warmly received, but to receive £250 is fantastic and so encouraging." He added: "Thank you to all who have donated food over the last few months. The response is great and so is the need. "We are always pleased to receive tinned or dried products. They can be left at St Mary's Church on a Friday and Saturday morning or Monday to Saturday during opening hours at Next Door Coffee Shop along Camps Road."

Father and sons 'died instantly' in collision

BY Laura Jean Morris

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A FATHER and his two teenage sons were killed instantly in an horrific traffic collision, an inquest heard.

David Bocking, 43, and sons Daniel, 14, and Stephen, 13, were pronounced dead at the scene of the crash on the A1307 on July 19 last year.

They had been travelling in a red Peugeot 306 people carrier along with 8-year-old Amanda Bocking and the children's stepmother, Lisa Bocking.

A verdict of accidental death was returned at an inquest in Cambridge last week.

The inquest heard that the boys, of Spence Close, Potton, had spent the weekend with their father, of Ramsey Road, Halstead.

They were travelling back to Halstead after visiting the Imperial War Museum at Duxford when the crash happened.

Despite widespread concerns over the safety of the A1307, accident investigator Pc Francis Crawford said he did not feel there was anything that could have been done to make the road safer in this particular case.

■ HORRIFIC . . . David Bocking and his two teenage sons were killed in an accident on the A1307.

Pc Crawford described how the Peugeot had hit the left-hand kerb as it exited the dual carriageway section near Haverhill.

He said that following the collision the car, which could have been travelling as fast as 74mph, veered across the carriageway, crossed over the white lines and went into the path of an oncoming silver

Volkswagen Golf. It then rolled on to the bonnet of the Golf, before being thrown into the air and landing sideways in a ditch.

The Golf was driven by Debra Coote, and was carrying her husband Raymond Coote and their daughter Emily.

After the hearing, Pc Crawford told the Weekly News: "There was no way Mrs Coote, who was driving the vehicle at the time, could have seen the car coming towards her.

"She could have done nothing to avoid this."

Lisa Bocking attended the inquest and spoke only once, to decline to comment when asked if she was driving the car.

Assistant deputy coroner Samuel Bass recorded a verdict of accidental death for all three of those killed. He said: "Death was likely to have been instantaneous."

"It is a tragedy for all those involved and it is something we should all think very carefully about when we drive home."

The mother of the boys, Tracey Horne, said after the hearing: "Their life was cut too short."

■ WATCHING YOU . . . the speed cameras on the A14.

Call for cameras on deadly A1307

AVERAGE speed cameras would be effective in reducing casualties on the notorious A1307, according to a senior Cambridgeshire police officer.

Inspector Chris Skepper, of the force's road policing unit, spoke to the Weekly News following the inquest into the deaths of David, Daniel and Stephen Bocking, and said that he felt the cameras, which are already in use on the A14, should be considered for the road.

Sixteen people have died on the Haverhill to Linton stretch in the last five years, and campaigners have been urging highways bosses to implement new safety schemes to help reduce the number of casualties.

Insp Skepper said: "This incident was particularly tragic as it involved so many members of the same family.

"The problem with fixed speed cameras is that it slows people down at the site, but not necessarily before or after."

"However, average speed cameras work across a whole stretch."

"I know there are discussions ongoing as to if more of these cameras could be put in and I would say that this stretch should be put on the list of places considered for that."

'No excuses' after councils join forces to tackle litter

BY John Goode
Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

■ SIGNED UP... members of the 3rd and 4th Haverhill Brownies are among those who have already joined the No Excuses anti-litter campaign. CP

TWO councils have joined forces to launch a new campaign aimed at tackling litter of all kinds.

The six-month "no excuses" by St Edmundsbury Borough Council, which covers the Haverhill area, and Forest Heath District Council, which covers the Newmarket and Mildenhall areas, will involve local organisations staging litter-picking days as well as a council poster campaign.

Each month will have a different theme starting with food and drink litter. Other problems to be tackled include chewing gum, cigarette ends, fly-tipping, dog mess and rubbish thrown from moving vehicles.

Cllr Nigel Roman, deputy leader of Forest Heath District Councillor who also chairs the Forest Heath and St Edmundsbury joint waste committee, said: "This campaign is designed to remind everyone to dispose of their litter in the right way so that we can keep our streets and countryside clean and green. We are fortunate to live in the beautiful county of Suffolk and, with a little effort from the whole community, we can make sure it stays that way."

Cllr Peter Stevens, portfolio holder for environment and Street Scene at St Edmundsbury and vice chairman of the Joint Waste Committee, said: "We hope that this campaign will help raise awareness of the problems associated with different types of litter."

"We want to spread the message that disposing of rubbish properly only takes a second, but does make a big difference."

Any individuals, groups or businesses that would like some promotional material to show their support for the campaign or help with developing new ideas to tackle litter in their community, should contact waste management on (01284) 757320.

Report sparks pump action

BY John Goode

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A FLOODED road has been cleared after a report about the problem appeared in the Weekly News.

Council highways workers pumped water away from the road at Cardinal's Green, Horseheath, last week.

The minor road had been awash for six weeks and at times was only passable by four-wheel-drive vehicles.

Resident Rosemarie Parks said: "As a result of your splendid article (in last week's Weekly News) the flood was dealt with.

"The road is an absolute muddy mess with carved-up verges, but one cannot have everything."

A Cambridgeshire County Council spokesman said: "We shall continue to monitor the situation until we can find a permanent solution to the problem of the pond overflowing."

The road is often used as a diversion when there is a crash on the nearby A1307.

Villages to compete for 'the best' prize

VILLAGES in Cambridgeshire with a population of up to 5,000 can enter a competition to be best in the county.

The Cambridgeshire and Peterborough Calor Village of the Year 2009 competition is organised by Cambridgeshire ACRE and sponsored by gas company Calor.

Villages will be judged on community, business, sustainability and communications. The winner will get £1,000 and the Fairhaven Trophy.

Julie Weekes, competition organiser, said: "The competition is to get villages to help themselves, so we want as many as possible to get involved and give it a go."

The entry deadline is June 15. For forms call (01353) 860850, email Julie.weekes@cambssacre.org.uk or go to www.cambssacre.org.uk.

Pothole patrols hits the streets

HIGHWAY hit squads are getting to grips with potholes caused by cold weather.

The move comes after the Weekly News reported the large amount of road damage resulting from the recent freezing weather.

Cambridgeshire County Council chiefs are calling on the public to help them fill in those cracks.

Reports of damage have quadrupled compared with last year and 14 highway teams are working to fill them.

Cambridgeshire has added its voice to neighbouring counties which are asking for extra Government funding to help repair the record amount of potholes.

Cllr Matt Bradney, cabinet member for highways, said: "The massive number of potholes that have appeared since the freezing weather is a concern for us and other councils across the country.

"Our pothole teams have been out and about as soon as the weather allowed, along with our highway supervisors.

"However, we can't be on every inch of the road all the time and we also need the help of the public to tell us where potholes are so we can deal with them."

To help, ring 0345 045 5212 or go to www.cambridgeshire.gov.uk/transport/roads/potholes/ to report a pothole.

Two caught in council tax fraud

BY John Goode

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A COUPLE have been prosecuted for benefit fraud after an anonymous tip-off to South Cambridgeshire District Council.

David Lombardi, 45, and Lisa Lombardi, 43, of Bakersfield Cottages, Horseheath, admitted receiving benefits totalling nearly £2,500 they were not entitled to.

David Lombardi admitted failing to report a change of circumstances to the council and the Department of Work and Pensions (DWP) and was ordered, by Cambridge magistrates, to do 80 hours unpaid work and pay £100 costs.

Lisa Lombardi admitted making a false statement to the council to obtain benefits and was given a 12-month conditional discharge and was ordered to pay £100 costs.

The couple had been claiming housing and council tax benefits as well as jobseekers' allowance due to unemployment.

But David Lombardi did not tell the council or the DWP that he had found work, the court heard.

Clr Tony Orgee, the council's finance portfolio holder, said: "This case is our 25th successful prosecution in 12 months, seven of which have been joint cases with the DWP."

"It should be a lesson to any benefit claimant who thinks that they can avoid telling us about a change in their circumstances.

"You will be caught, and we will take action. You will have to repay all the money fraudulently claimed as well as costs and could end up with a criminal record."

Benefit claimants can call the council on 08450 450061 or visit www.scamps.gov.uk for help and advice if they need to amend their claim or their circumstances change.

Anyone who knows someone who is fraudulently claiming benefits can report it in confidence on 0800 7311892 or by emailing benefitfraud@scamps.gov.uk.

Lions help recession-hit hospice

A FUND-raising organisation has stepped in to help a hospice which has suffered a drop in income as a result of the recession. Newmarket Lions gave £2,000 plight. A cheque was handed over at the hospice charity shop in Newmarket High Street. Chris Rawlinson, from the Lions, said: "We have helped the hospice in the past and will probably do so again in the future."

Ian Norris, hospice fund raiser, said: "We are grateful for the support from the Lions." The 12-bed hospice in Bury St Edmunds helps people with serious and terminal illnesses from all over West Suffolk including Newmarket, Mildenhall and Haverhill.

Mr Norris said there were around 70 patients in the Newmarket area who received care in their own homes. Later this month, a Hospice at Home scheme will be launched to provide additional help for people in their own homes.

How shops can get a new lease of life

THE impact of the deepening recession is evident for all to see as an ever-increasing number of shops go out of business.

Once-bustling high streets have been disfigured by the growing number of businesses that have gone to the wall.

A survey in January found 35 shops were boarded up in Cambridge city centre and the story is equally depressing in other towns.

Now the Local Government Association (LGA) says high streets risk becoming "ghost towns" unless urgent action is taken to fill the empty shops, either with new businesses or community projects.

Margaret Eaton, LGA chairman, said: "Rows of boarded-up shops are a sad reflection of the recession. Not only do they signal a local economy in decline, they also become a hotspot for anti-social behaviour and drag down the whole feel of an area.

"Decisive action must be taken to stop our high streets turning into ghost towns. The best option is for new or existing businesses to move into empty premises.

"Empty shops could provide a range of services to benefit people

Town hall leaders say high street shops lying empty because of the economic downturn could be used for community purposes. JOHN DOWNING reports.

during the recession. Be it an information centre or a bring-and-buy sale, these things could be done without spending significant amounts of money."

The call was backed by councillors and business leaders. Emma Thornton, Cambridge city centre manager, said: "We are working with a number of organisations to tackle the problem of empty shop units. Lots of people have come forward with ideas and there will be some new uses quite quickly."

An LGA survey found 87 per cent of councils in the East of England reported an increase in the number of empty properties in town centres. The idea of using empty shops as community areas was used by squatters last year at the controversial site for a proposed Tesco Express store in Mill Road, Cambridge.

Anti-Tesco campaigners held an art exhibition, tango classes, boxing classes, a band night and film screenings in the store.

Latest figures from the city council show around 40 vacant units in the historic city centre core and 30 more in and around The Grafton, other retail parks and shopping streets.

In Haverhill, Sarah Howard, who chairs Haverhill's Chamber of Commerce, took a positive view.

She said: "We have got new companies coming into the High Street."

Iceland is taking over the former Woolworths premises and Costa Coffee have just put in a planning application. They wouldn't be coming if they didn't think the business was here."

Ms Howard said a new development of flats and shops had only one vacant unit and the new Tesco store would draw more people into the town.

She said: "I feel quite positive. We've just got to encourage people to use their local facilities – particularly the independent shops which can offer good service."

■ POSITIVE FUTURE... Sarah Howard, chairman of the Haverhill Chamber of Commerce, said it was encouraging to see new businesses, including Tesco and Costa Coffee, moving into the town.

The owner of the town's USA Chicken outlet was upset by a television report on the state of business in the High Street which implied that his business had closed when cameras showed shutters pulled down at the front of the premises.

Ibrahim Sanci has said his fast food business is continuing to trade normally.

In Newmarket, there are four closed shops in the High Street and The Guineas shopping centre – Woolworths, Judith Fisher's fashion shop, Adams children's clothes and Linen and Things. At least two others have "closing down" signs.

Ely lost Woolworths and Priceless Shoes. Furniture firm Ocean Cargo also called it a day and hat hire shop Mad Hatters has not yet been filled.

Cllr Mike Hibbs, mayor of Saffron Walden, said there were at last seven vacant shop units including Woolworths, Cardfair and Eaden Lilley.

He said: "If landlords could consider lending out empty shop fronts to community groups, such as the Scouts, it would be much better than having them boarded up."

In both Huntingdon and St Ives, the former Woolworths branches are among the biggest sites that stand vacant, but Sue Fisher of St Ives Town Initiative, said moves to revitalise shopping areas must come from the Government.

The Gross rate is the contractual rate of interest payable before deduction of income tax at the rate specified by law (currently 20%).

The Net rate is the rate paid after income tax has been deducted (currently 20%).

The Annual Equivalent Rate (AER) is a notional rate which illustrates what the gross interest rate would be if interest was paid and added to the account annually. AERs on an account which pays monthly interest assumes interest is added to the account at the end of each month during the year. In practice, the option to have interest added in this way is not available on our Hallmark or 90 Day Notice monthly interest options.

The Tax-free rate is the contractual rate of interest payable where interest is exempt from income tax.

All the above rates are variable. Cash Individual Savings Accounts (ISAs), and Cash Child Trust Fund accounts, pay interest tax-free provided all terms and conditions of the account types are met. On all other accounts, interest will be paid at the net rate after the appropriate rate of income tax (currently 20%) has been deducted, or gross on receipt of the required declaration form. Where interest is paid net, the income tax may be reclaimed if the amount deducted exceeds the investor's tax liability. Higher rate taxpayers will have to pay the extra due (the difference between tax deducted at 20% and the higher rate of 40%). Tax assumptions are based on current legislation which may change in the future. Net rates are illustrative only and have been rounded to two decimal places. Full terms and conditions are available from all our branches. Cambridge Building Society complies with The Banking Code.

NOTICE TO EXISTING BORROWERS

With effect from 6th March 2009, our Variable Home Loan Rate will decrease by 0.50% per annum to 3.00% p.a. The rate for all of our Tracker Mortgages will reduce by 0.50%. The Standard Variable Rate remains unchanged at 4.00% p.a. The Commercial Base Rate, for non owner-occupied residential loans, remains unchanged at 5.59% p.a. Under the annual review system, this change of interest will be reflected in the revised monthly payments effective from March 2010.

This notice does not apply to any mortgage account operated by interim review. Those borrowers will be notified separately.

Businesses share ideas on how to survive tough times

■ BUSINESS EXCHANGE... above and right, representatives from local businesses talk at the chamber event.

BY John Goode

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A CREDIT crunch clinic and networking event for Haverhill businesses has been hailed a success.

More than 60 people from local businesses and other organisations took part in the event, organised by the Haverhill Chamber of Commerce, at Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College.

Sarah Howard, chamber chairman, said: "I am delighted that so many local businesses attended the event.

"There was a very positive buzz, lots of ideas and contacts shared. It just goes to show that Haverhill still has a great positive, proactive approach to business, despite the economic climate.

"The presentations gave lots of advice and ideas to help us. It's exactly the kind of event that the chamber should be facilitating.

"The event generated a lot of interest from people thinking about joining the chamber. It does offer excellent value for money, particularly as through our affiliation with Suffolk Chamber we can offer members such a wide range of business benefits - from legal advice to private healthcare.

"We now offer the facility to pay by monthly direct debit, which makes it even easier to join."

The next chamber event will take place on March 24 at Days Inn, Phoenix Road, Haverhill.

Paul Little, of Peninsula Business Services, will look at how health and safety laws impact on small businesses and what should be provided in a working environment.

It costs £7.50 for chamber members and £15 or non-members.

For further details of the event, or the chamber in general, contact Kate Anstee at kateanstee@haverhillchamber.co.uk or phone (01799) 668132.

Three-star council is 'improving well'

THREE stars have been given to Cambridgeshire County Council by the Audit Commission after it said the authority was "improving well".

Essex, Hertfordshire and Bedfordshire county councils were also given three stars out of a possible four, with Essex and Hertfordshire also said to be "improving well".

All four were awarded three stars the previous year.

The ratings emerged in the Comprehensive Performance Assessment (CPA) – the Audit Commission's annual measure of councils' performance in England – which was published today.

Inspectors said: "Cambridgeshire County Council is improving in many priority areas. Performance remains good in children's services including educational attainment.

"Recycling rates are among the best and are improving. Adult social care has improved, with outcomes for service users now assessed as good with promising prospects for further improvement."

The council was awarded four stars – which represents a strong performance – for the way it manages its finances and provides value for money as well as for its environmental services, which includes transport, planning and waste.

However, the council was given only two stars – which represents an adequate performance – for services in the category of culture including libraries and leisure, bringing an average of three stars.

Increase in tax despite freeze

A COUNCIL tax freeze has been confirmed by St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

But householders will still face an increase due to rises in the tax demands by Suffolk County Council and the county's police authority.

St Edmundsbury has held its tax at the same level as last year with an average band D home paying £171.99 towards the council's services.

The full council approved the freeze at a meeting last week. Full details of tax allocations will be given in the booklet sent to all households along with the annual council tax demand.

Neighbouring South Cambridgeshire District Council agreed a 4.5 per cent rise which the council says equates to 9p a week. An average band D home will pay £112.10 for district council services.

LOCAL country star Nick Barracough brings Telephone Bill and The Smooth Operators to the Acoustic Routes night at Cb2's on Norfolk Street, Cambridge, on Saturday. The former BBC Radio 2 presenter and his band will mix influences from country, swing, blues and doo-wop with accordions, harmonicas, banjos and mandolins. Also on the bill is Celtic Country star Adriana and singer songwriter Adrian Nation. Tickets are £8. Visit www.acousticroutes.co.uk to book.

Football chant

CAMBRIDGE'S globally inspired collective Sunday Driver will be launching their new single The Gayatri Mantra at Cambridge City Football Club tomorrow. With airplay and support from the BBC Asian Network the track – based on a Sanskrit prayer – comes from the recent album In The City Of Dreadful Night, which has influences drawn from Indian classical music to jazz. Tickets are £4 and the music starts at 8.45pm.

Spanish pop

FEMALE-FRONTED bubblegum pop brigade Suzy and Los Quattro will be flying in from their native Barcelona to play the city's Portland Arms on Saturday. They have appeared on Spanish television and toured Europe and Japan. Support comes Yorkshire power pop troupe Tataka. Tickets are £6.

Grumpy gig for 'junior Victor Meldrew'

BBC 6Music funnyman Jon Richardson will be bringing his grumpy young man stylings to the Junction's Jesterlar Comedy Club in Cambridge, tomorrow. As well as building up an army of fans for his weekly shows on 6Music alongside Russell Howard he has also appeared on the Radio 4 generational comedy panel show Act Your Age and been nominated for the Edinburgh Festival's coveted

If.comedy newcomer award. Described by The Scotsman as "a junior version of Victor Meldrew, only wittier and more northern" his humour stems from the neuroses of a single man living alone with only his own thoughts for company. Support comes from musical twosome Rob and Skata and rising star Holly Walsh. Tickets are £11 and the show starts at 8.30pm. To book call (01223) 511511.

Heavenly harmonies in girls-only karaoke

■ EPIC DRAMA . . . Nicole Kidman and Hugh Jackman star in Baz Luhrmann's blockbuster, Australia. CP

FIVE friends re-live the past, celebrate the present, and look to the future in an extraordinary night out in a karaoke bar in Girls' Night: The Musical.

Playing on Sunday, at 7.30pm, at the Haverhill Arts Centre, the stage show is narrated by Sharon, an angel and old friend, who died when they were in their teens. It also features classic hits like I Will Survive, It's Raining Men and Girls Just Want to Have Fun.

Mike Maran, who gave us Captain Corelli's Mandolin, returns to the centre with another stage cracker, A Funny Valentine on Thursday March 12, at 7.30pm. Top trumpet player Chet Baker is doing time in an Italian jail for drug offences. Twenty-eight years later, on the night he dies, he shares a room with his old cellmate, a storyteller.

Only the storyteller knows the whole story – and now he's telling it. With live music on stage this is an unforgettable evening of jazz, junk and genius suitable for ages 15 and above. The centre's new cinema programme kicks off with feel-good film Slumdog Millionaire (15) showing tomorrow and Saturday, at 7.45pm, and Monday, at 1.30pm. It bagged a host of BAFTAs and Oscars and tells the story of 18-year-old Jamal, a Mumbai slum orphan just one question away from winning a staggering 30 million rupees on India's Who Wants To Be A Millionaire. But when the show breaks for the night, police arrest him on suspicion of cheating; how could a street kid know so much?

Spanish film with English subtitles El Baño del Papa (The Pope's Toilet) (15) is showing at

Aries Mar 21 - April 20

Separating from reality will be something of a challenge, especially at work. You need to keep your nose to the grindstone. Don't fool yourself that you are irreplaceable. If you are seen slacking off, you could be fired. Spend time on a pet project after hours. Avoid sending personal emails at the office.

Taurus April 21 - May 21

Don't be afraid to be a little aggressive to get an interview. The competition is fierce, and you need to prove you are tough enough. A youngster or lover may resent all the time you spend on preparing for this job. Stand your ground. If you always defer to your loved ones, though, you'll start to resent them.

Blending business with pleasure won't be too hard. If your employer sends you on a trip you may have an opportunity to go to a local hotspot. Don't let a pessimistic relative cloud your thinking. Their gloomy outlook is at odds with your "can do" attitude. That's why you've progressed while they have stayed stuck in the past.

Protect your valuable, or you might lose them. It's important to keep personal information under lock and key, or you risk losing it. A quick temper may try to undermine your authority. Although you have more experience and knowledge than them, they will still try to chip away at your confidence. They are jealous.

Playing hard to get will pay off in a odd way. A lover will be intrigued by your unorthodox ways. Don't be afraid to appear your true self. The most interesting will appear, the deeper you will lure them into your web of intrigue. Resist the urge to spend on luxury items. You've got to pay off your debts before indulging your vices.

Byrne celebrates the wonder of whinging

By Nik Shelton

LONG-HAIRED Irish funnyman Ed Byrne has got some whinging to do, and he wants to share it with you.

The comedian, who has been plying his razor sharp trade in observational humour on the stand-up circuit for over a decade and is a regular on BBC show Mock the Week, started his current tour at the Junction in Cambridge last year but it has proved such a success that he is back on Wednesday, March 11, and this time he's filling the Corn Exchange.

"Class is a subject that weaves its way through the show," he says.

"Like many people I'm not particularly middle class and I'm not particularly working class because there's an incredible snobbery that comes with both of them, into either and I'm quite jealous of people who are comfortably one or the other.

"I think being comfortable with your class is a lot about being comfortable with who you are. I find myself hating people for being middle class and hating people for being working class reassuring and they can say, 'Wow I feel that way too!'"

Ed Byrne plays the Corn Exchange on Wednesday, March 11. Tickets are £15 and the show starts at 8pm. To book call (01223) 357851.

The Traditional Way to sell a Property

Get Estate Agents to value it and put it on the market.

Show people around the property.
(Mostly "Nosy Parkers" & Sightseers)

If no offers received after 2 or 3 months, reduce price.

Show more people around.

Eventually accept an offer at between 5 & 10% off the advertised price.

Hope the sale doesn't fall through.
(Over 30% of sales don't reach completion).

Once price agreed, wait a further 3 months for sale to complete.

Work out how many £,000's it has cost you in reducing the price, making mortgage payments, paying Estate Agents fee's and Legal fee's since you started the process (on average, 7 months ago...)

YOUR GUIDE TO MOVING HOME

1 Moving home can be a complicated business and, in the hectic run to the big day, it is all too easy to forget something vital. The Property News offers their readers this handy checklist that should help avoid major pitfalls. We suggest you tick off the items as you deal with them...

WITH FOUR WEEKS TO GO:

- Get estimates from removal companies, checking that comprehensive insurance cover is available against damage or loss. Is there a packing and unpacking service? Confirm the date of your move with the firm you have chosen.
- Check on your home contents insurance policies to ensure that you are covered for the move, and covered at your new address.
- Make arrangements for your gas and electricity meters (plus water meters where relevant) to be read and all your appliances to be disconnected on the day of your move.
- Arrange to take over gas and electricity at your new address, and make sure that all appliances will be properly fitted, plumbed or connected.
- Notify British Telecom and ask them to make the necessary arrangements for a final account at your present address, and for taking over or installing telephone facilities at your new home.
- Arrange for change of address cards to be printed.

WITH TWO WEEKS TO GO:

- Confirm all arrangements, times etc, for meter readings, disconnections and reconnections, with authorities and with your buyer and seller.
- Make sure you have a good stock of packing materials, including sturdy boxes and plenty of string and sticky tape.
- Begin to throw out unwanted items from attics, wardrobes. What you really don't want you may as well dump now, or send to charity. It's a great time for a good sort out!

WITH ONE WEEK TO GO:

- Send off change of address cards.
- Arrange and pay for automatic redirection of your mail by the Post Office.
- Cancel and pay up accounts for routine delivery services such as milk, groceries, fuel and your Cambridge Evening News. Re-organise these deliveries for your new address.
- Defrost refrigerators in preparation for move and, if you are moving a freezer and its contents, turn it up to maximum for a couple of days before you move.

WITH ONE DAY TO GO:

- Complete your packing except for those items you are likely to need overnight, and prepare a picnic for moving day.
- Have a large enough cash 'float' available to deal with unexpected expenses, and make sure you have collected documents and valuables together in a safe place.
- Cover carkeys which are being left behind, so as to minimise damage during furniture removal.
- Check through previous lists to make sure nothing has been overlooked, then enjoy a worry-free early night!

2 ON MOVING DAY:

- Strip beds and pack bedding and nightclothes.
- Pack items for washing/toiletries.
- Take down curtains.
- Take up rugs, carpets, floor coverings, as required.
- Dismantle any light fittings etc., not included in the sale.
- Turn off electric appliances.
- Disconnect cooker.
- Turn off boiler/central heating.
- Turn off water.
- Read gas meter.
- Read electricity meter.
- Secure all windows.
- Lock all doors.
- Leave key as arranged with new owners.
- On arrival at your new home, unpack slowly and methodically so that you can check for loss or damage.

Cute tearaway is so sweetly tuned

THOSE of you with a long enough memory will also remember that back in the day, a talented and distinctly bonkers man by the name of Carlos Abarth spent many hours tuning the 500 – among other Fiat products – and went racing, writes Matt Joy.

It takes a particularly twisted kind of genius to tune a 594cc engine, but it worked, and now the new 500 has been given a similar sting in its tail – and it wears the Abarth scorpion badge as a reminder.

It's hard not to get excited just by looking at the 500 Abarth. Where the standard car is unquestionably cute and endearing, the Abarth appears to have taken some self-defence lessons, been down the gym and picked up an in-yer-face attitude along the way. It looks pumped up and ready for action, thanks to the chunky alloys and bodykit, but there's still plenty of choice for customisation. Graphics, a choice of alloy wheels and roof decals are all available – though if you ask me, the side stripes are essential.

■ INSIDE... cute – and comfortable.

There's just as much fun to be had on the inside. There's a pair of chunky sports seats, the steering wheel has a flattened bottom and is wrapped in leather, and there's a smart roof lining and privacy glass at the back too.

The Abarth 500 is far from all show and no go. Under the cutest bonnet in motordom lies the 1.4-litre turbocharged petrol unit you'll also find in the Grande Punto Abarth. Here it pumps out 135bhp and 152lb ft of torque – only in Sport mode though, but more of that later. It's that torque figure that makes the difference, and the unit's turbocharged characteristics perfectly suit the Abarth's fiery nature.

The grunt starts to make its presence felt from low down in the revs, but keep the throttle pinned and it scoots round to the rev limiter with impressive vigour and a keen rasp from the exhaust.

That's only half the story though. The Abarth 500 has not abandoned its frugal heritage in the transformation to baby hot hatch. The key is the Sport button, fitted as standard and located on the dash. In the Normal default mode, the engine delivers only 132lb ft of torque, and the pod-mounted rev counter flashes at you when you reach the optimal gearchange point for economy. All that helps it to achieve 43.4mpg on the combined cycle and a not-unreasonable 155g/km of CO₂. But punch that button and you get the full corral of horses, the steering is heavier, the throttle responds more clearly – and the rev counter now flashes at you when you reach the red line.

The chassis is there to back it up too. The expected stiffer springs and dampers are present and correct, and while the occasional bump reminds you of just how stiff it is, it's far from intolerable and the Abarth is still fine to use every day. It also pays off when you head off-piste. The lack of mass and firm set-up means the Abarth dives into corners with glee. The steering is much weightier in Sport mode too, and some clever technology in the form of Torque Transfer Control helps the Abarth scoot out of the bends with the minimum loss of traction.

That's not the end of the story either. An extra £2,500 on top of the standard price will secure you the esseesse pack – a tuning kit fitted by the dealer at any time in the first 12 months after purchase that pushes the engine output to 160bhp, adds 17-inch alloys with high-spec Pirelli tyres, better brakes, stiffer suspension and tyre pressure monitoring. It turns the Abarth into a real rocket – plus it comes in its own branded crate, which is worth it for the geek-factor alone.

Basically...

The Abarth 500 is more than capable of attracting the modest numbers that Fiat expect to sell. It has a couple of obvious rivals, the Mini Cooper being one of them, but given that the Abarth is the new kid on the block, has the style and the performance as well as the cache of that historical badge, it may just be at the top of the most wanted list.

Volvo unveils Start/Stop

VOLVO is extending its green DRIVE range after dramatically reducing CO₂ levels and increasing fuel efficiency in seven models.

The full DRIVE range will be unveiled at the Geneva Motor Show on Tuesday and will now include the XC60 crossover, V70 and XC70 premium estates and S80 executive saloon. The current DRIVE cars, C30 SportsCoupe, S40 saloon and V50 Sportswagon, offer class leading CO₂ emissions thanks to an intelligent Start/Stop system which provides two intelligent new features.

Start/Stop

The first is a Start/Stop function that allows the engine to switch off when the car is at a standstill, whilst also maintaining comfort settings such as the air conditioning. The second new feature in the C30, S40 and V50 DRIVE

1.6D with Start/Stop is a regenerative charge facility. This charges the battery as soon as the driver releases the accelerator or brakes while a gear is engaged, achieving fuel savings of 2-3 per cent.

All the new DRIVE models will be available in the UK in summer 2009 with further specification and pricing details being announced closer to the time.

■ ECO-FRIENDLY... new DRIVE models will hit the local market in the summer.

Pay-as-you-drive scheme is new era of insurance

DRIVERS covering up to 20,000 miles a year are in line to make significant savings on their motoring costs because they are changing their driving styles – they can now monitor their per-mile insurance cost as well as their fuel consumption.

That's the finding of pay-as-you-drive car insurer Coverbox (www.coverbox.co.uk) after its first full month in business.

"Higher mileage drivers are, in particular, changing the way they drive their cars and becoming vastly more cost-conscious – for instance, we've all noticed lower average speeds and less aggressive driving on motorways since the recession started to bite: we're all trying to cut fuel costs. But drivers can now monitor their insurance cost per mile as well – even on mobile internet during fuel stops or breaks."

"As part of our early product research we've been asking how useful the Coverbox 'dashboard' function is on policy-holders' personal web pages. The answer is that it seems to be incredibly useful for cost management.

"The dashboard provides information on when people drive, and the distance they drive – but the feedback from our cost-conscious higher mileage drivers, who use their own car on company business, is that they're spotting where they can make significant cost savings.

"They see they are making unnecessary journeys, not thinking through appointment schedules in such a way as to cover the minimum possible mileage, but, crucially, they can see the benefit of organising their day so that they avoid driving in peak periods.

"By working from home in the rush hour, and then setting off on long journeys after 9.30am, some drivers are trading 30 or 40 miles at up to 45p a mile insurance cost in peak times with 30 or 40 miles at as little as 5p per mile in off peak periods.

"Not only are our quotes competitive with traditional insurers – in many cases significantly lower – we can also offer theft-tracking inclusive in the price, something that would cost hundreds of pounds extra on top of a traditional insurance policy.

"It's an upward spiral though: theft-tracking means vehicles are lower risk, so the policy price comes down."

Coverbox pay-as-you-drive (PAYD) insurance allows drivers to take out comprehensive cover that is paid for by the mile, with the price per mile varying according to the time of the day or night: off-peak, peak or "super-peak" times. The dashboard technology requires a one-off payment of £39 to install.

Over-23s are charged according to rush hour (Monday to Friday 7.30am-9.30am and 4.30pm to 6pm excluding public holidays) or off-peak use, but under-23s are also subject to a "super-peak" charging structure: Friday, Saturday and Sunday 11pm to 5am, and public holidays 11pm to 5am.

However, under-23s will also receive a bonus of 200 free off-peak miles every three months if they stay claim and conviction free.

The technology behind Coverbox – which is provided by Cobra, one of Europe's leading automotive security companies, and based on proven equipment specified as original equipment by several major car makers – means customers will also have the additional peace of mind of theft-tracking: in virtually all cases, Coverbox can track and locate the car if it is stolen.

Which is a nice bonus.

Kia's flexible Soul is on sale

THE long and anticipated wait is over when the Kia Soul arrived into EMG Kia's showroom this week. The convention-busting Soul is Kia's most significant model yet, and is now available in Cambridge.

Defying classification and traditional appeal, the Soul provides a stylish yet flexible alternative for motorists who have a desire to go against established trends.

Danny Emmerton, new car sales manager at EMG Kia, explains the enthusiasm for the Soul: "We're very excited to be receiving Soul into our showroom; it's the perfect response for those who want to lift their spirits and turn heads at the same time. The blend of innovative design and individuality will not come at premium prices, and will provide Cambridge locals with a car that has real personality."

The Soul has a 1.6-litre petrol or diesel engine.

■ COMPACT YET CAPACIOUS ... Kia's Soul is a unique crossover.

Spacious Qubo is now on sale

FIAT has launched a new model directly targeted at families feeling the pinch in these difficult economic times – the Qubo.

The mini-MPV looks across between Fiat's Grande Punto and the company's Fiorino van, largely because the Qubo has been created from parts of the two models.

The chassis is from the Grande Punto so it should retain a decent level of handling ability despite the increased height. But that additional head room and boxy shape – hence the cube based name – creates a light and spacious interior that seats four adults and a little 'un with ease.

Fold the back seats forward and an extremely van-like boot is created and the twin sliding doors and large tailgate make loading and unloading easy. Even with the rear seats in use, boot space is larger than most family hatchbacks.

The interior in general has been designed for optimum practicality with a glovebox deep enough to hold a laptop joining the now obligatory scattering of cubby-holes and storage spaces that every MPV has. That said, although the interior is practical, it holds a good level of kit too.

The Qubo comes with a choice of two engines, a 1.4 litre petrol or a 1.3

■ ADAPTABLE ... with petrol or diesel options.

litre MultiJet diesel – the latter is likely to be the most popular – which provide distinctly modest performance figures but plenty of power to buzz around town or cruise on the motorway while keeping green figures healthy. The petrol unit will return 40.9mpg on the combined cycle while the diesel will offer 62.8mpg. Emissions figures sit at 165 and 119g/km respectively.

The Qubo is on sale now with prices starting at £9,750.

■ INSIDE THE QUBO ... prices start at £9,750.

■ THE FIAT QUBO ... mixes the Grande Punto with the Fiorino.

■ THE FORD RANGER ... due later this year.

Ford Ranger gets a revamp

A NEW Ford Ranger pick-up, on sale later this year, makes its first public appearance in Europe at the Geneva Motor Show next month.

Designed in Australia and built in Thailand, the new one-tonne pick-up boasts a contemporary design inside and out. "The Ford Ranger nameplate is already established in more than 100 markets around the world," said Henrik Nenzen, Ford of Europe's director of commercial vehicle marketing and sales. "The new model delivers even more style, comfort and features, making it an ideal choice."

Exterior design features include a large horizontal three-bar grille at the front, large headlamps that wrap around each front corner and bigger door mirrors for better visibility. At the rear the Ranger debuts a new clear tail-lamp design.

With a contemporary new exterior the new Ranger is available with 10 paint choices, five of which are new: Highland Green, Winning Blue, Lagoon Blue, Copper Red and Desert Bronze.

FOOTBALL: JUNIOR ROUND-UP

Aztecs on the rampage after early boosters

Steeple Bumpstead Dynamos 0 Aztecs A 12

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, UNDER-10B
THREE goals in the first five minutes set Aztecs on the way to a comprehensive victory. Tyler Thurgood struck twice and Luke Wood added the third to give the home side a mountain to climb.

William Savill, another from Wood, and two goals from the outstanding Lewis Little on his debut made it 7-0 at the break and Callum Hayes, Toby Goodship (2), Ben Lindsell and an own goal rounded it off.

Elsenham A 3 Grampian Gunners B 1

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, UNDER-10B

GRUNNERS were rocked by an explosive start by Elsenham, who took the lead in the first minute from a long-range speculative shot and, soon after, keeper Sean Gage made a superb stop from a penalty. However, as the away team's confidence grew and, after some good chances for James Austin and Sam Law, they got back on level terms from Joshua Fischer's powerful shot. Elsenham, though, did not make further pressure tell until late in the game, and Gunners finally succumbed to a goal from a scramble which did not look as if it had crossed the line.

West Wrating 4

Whittleford Warriors 0

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, UNDER-11A

CHARLIE Ripp scored twice as West Wrating inflicted only the second defeat of the season on Whittleford. Mo Horsley and Leyton George capped a fine team performance in a game where the scoreline masked the effort Wrating had to put in.

Linton Aztecs A 1 Grampian Gunners 5

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, UNDER-11A

GRAMPIAN Gunners shrugged off a late defensive reshuffle to record a comprehensive victory. George Mustoe was injured in the warm-up with Mitchell Forshaw stepping into central defence, but after an even opening 10 minutes Jamie Lingard ended the stalemate. Ashley Whyatt, who pounced on a rebound from Lingard's shot for his first Gunners' goal, Jason Moore, a Jack Ferguson penalty, and Jack Davis completed the scoring.

Rovers double bid on the boil

Alconbury 1 Haverhill Rovers 2

CAMBRIDGE AND DISTRICT COLTS LEAGUE, UNDER-15 KO CUP SEMI-FINAL

DETERMINED Rovers continued their rich vein of form, booking their place in the final as they seek a league and cup double.

The intelligence and work-rate of their central midfield trio – Jack Marsh, Charlie Holmes and Reece Weaver – caused problems throughout.

Holmes opened the scoring after just six minutes, turning smartly on to Marsh's pass to fire low across the keeper.

And a few minutes later a sweeping move, started by Jorge McCullam's well-timed tackle and featuring a fine break from Romario Robinson, ended with Chris Ball cracking in from 18 yards.

Alconbury pulled a goal back after a goalmouth scramble but could not halt Rovers' march.

■ The team are looking for a new sponsor ready for the cup final and next season and if anyone is interested they should contact Brad Rice on 07966 373412.

Chatteris Tn 0 Haverhill Rov 7

CAMBRIDGE AND DISTRICT COLTS LEAGUE, UNDER-11C EVEN with a depleted side, Rovers went to town in their first league match of the year.

Will Bailey opened the scoring as the visitors slipped into the groove on a heavy pitch, with two goals from Alex Carter putting Haverhill in charge before the break. Further chances came and went, with Rovers hitting the woodwork three times as well as missing a penalty.

But they still managed to increase their tally through Ben Coleman, Joshua Osuchukwu – who converted a spot-kick at the third attempt – Carter again and Rhys Shulver.

Priory Parkside E 3 West Wrating 5

CAMBRIDGE AND DISTRICT COLTS LEAGUE, UNDER-12 KO CUP

WEST Wrating have progressed to their first cup semi-final. Their goals came from a Lambert hat-trick, Torode, and Bailey.

Newmarket 0 Withersfield 5

CAMBRIDGE AND DISTRICT COLTS LEAGUE, UNDER-12

NEW signing Charlie Butler was among the scorers as Withersfield swamped mid-table Newmarket with a fine display of slick, attacking football.

Henley Kennedy also got in on the act to cap his own good performance in midfield, while Alex Horscroft was outstanding in defence.

Hundon Hawks 2 Isleham 0

CAMBRIDGE AND DISTRICT COLTS LEAGUE, UNDER-16B

HAWKS wrapped up a routine victory to maintain their climb towards the promotion places.

Tom Lock gave them the lead in the first half to cap early pressure while George Wheeler gave them a two-goal cushion against some late sloppiness in defence.

Bedbrook's blast clinches crown

Haverhill Rovers 5 Alconbury 0

S-TECH CAMBS GIRLS LEAGUE, UNDER-10

UNBEATEN Haverhill Rovers secured the league title in their first season with another show of strength and determination. Building on the solid defensive work of Shannon Atherton, Gabrielle Kendall, Erin Mortimer and Shannon Mainland, they opened the scoring through Courtney Lane. However, Jodie Bedbrook's two goals gave Rovers breathing space and Georgina Lister and player-of-the-match Zoe Chesham wrapped up the points.

■ The team are moving up to seven-a-side next season and are looking for new players – they hope to start a second team – and a sponsor. Anyone interested should contact Paul on 07905 641753 or Gary 07837 229625. Training is at the Samuel Ward Upper School and Technology College from 5.30pm to 6.30pm on Thursdays.

Haverhill Rovers 7 Bottisham 0

S-TECH CAMBS GIRLS LEAGUE, UNDER-14B HAVERHILL Rovers shook off the rust from seven weeks inactivity to put Bottisham to the sword. As well as scoring seven, they also hit the woodwork four times – Katie Schulz hitting both bar and post within seconds.

Schulz, however, broke the deadlock and went on to complete a hat-trick as did Stacey Roper, with Chloe Ellis completing the scoring.

■ Any one interested in playing for one of the Haverhill Rovers boys or girls teams should contact Gary Spiers (girls' chairman) or Brad Rice (boys' chairman), or go to the website www.haverhillroversfc.co.uk for information.

Foley helps Haverhill hang on

Stowmarket 19 Haverhill 20

UNDER-14, INTER-CLUB

HAVERHILL breathed a massive sigh of relief after a "real owd Suffolk ding-dong" for the final 15 minutes against Stowmarket. They managed to play at both extremes of the skills spectrum in a fast-moving end-to-end match. After a frantic start, in which both sets of forwards were gasping for breath at every whistle, Haverhill broke the deadlock with a try from outside-centre Elliott Patrick.

But, as has often been the case this season they conceded points almost immediately, Stowmarket taking the lead with a converted try.

The visitors responded with George Foley's try but once again were pegged after a passage of play which left the astonished Haverhill coaches with their heads in their hands. However, Foley's second try from the last play of the half gave the away side confidence and they settled down and were further boosted by Jacob Willmore's touch down in the second minute after Nathan Craig made good ground.

This time they managed to keep their line intact for all of 10 minutes before a series of minor infringements moved Stowmarket up field and their converted try left the scores at 20-19, prompting both sides to slug it out in midfield for the final 15 minutes.

■ TRY ON ... Nathan Craig makes the break from which Haverhill scored the decisive try.

SUFFOLK PLATE

RYAN Raffell scored Haverhill's solitary try in a defeat which did not leave skipper Paul Bergin that disappointed.

"It was a strong performance," said skipper Paul Bergin. "They were just a lot better than us and a lot better than last time. They were better drilled and organised.

"We did challenge them in quite a few places and denied them a score for a long spell, but it was all well-worked tries from them.

"We put up more of a fight than the scoreline suggested but that's not to say they didn't deserve their win." Haverhill are back in Eastern Counties Two action this weekend, away at Broadland.

BEN Wilkins was the most successful Strikers' player as they finished runners-up in Suffolk & Cambs Junior Table Tennis League, and not as stated in information supplied to last week's News.

RIDGEONS LEAGUE, PREMIER DIVISION

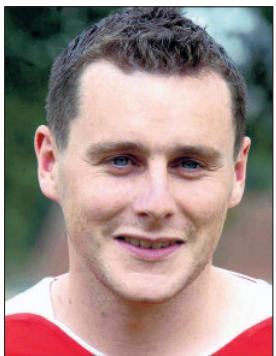

HAVERHILL boss Peter Betts was delighted with his team after they secured a point at Histon reserves on Wednesday.

Betts said: "It was a great result – the best point we've had for a long time. They had a strong side out, which you expect when you play Histon in midweek and on paper they should have battered us.

"But our work rate was excellent and although they dominated the play we created chances every now and then."

Rovers led 1-0 at the break thanks to a goal from Jamie Challis. However, the vastly-experienced Neil Andrews and Callum Stewart put Histon ahead before Shaun Banham equalised from the penalty spot.

Betts said: "This is a great confidence booster ahead of the game on Friday. I just hope it hasn't taken too much out of them because the Wivenhoe match is a really important game – if we win we'll close the gap on Wisbech to three points and see some light at the end of the tunnel."

Entry to the game at Hamlet Croft is free – there will also be a race night after the game – and with Julian Dix leading Wivenhoe Town, Betts expects the atmosphere to be even more special.

"We expect a big crowd there, cheering us on," he said. "There is a big contingent of West Ham fans in Haverhill as well, so there will be a lot of supporters there."

It should be a great atmosphere."

After that, Rovers face the short trip to Cambridge on Wednesday for a clash against Cambridge Regional College at the Abbey Stadium.

Haverhill Rovers 0 Dereham Tn 1

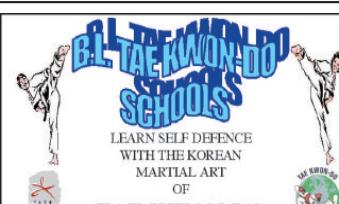

RIDGEONS LEAGUE, PREMIER DIVISION

PETER Betts felt Haverhill gave fourth-placed Dereham a real run for their money before falling by a single goal.

The only goal came after just 12 minutes when goalkeeper Ed Campbell was beaten by a fierce drive.

Haverhill kept plugging away and went close to equalising through Shaun Banham and Louis Harper, and Betts said: "It was a fairly even game and I thought it had 0-0 written all over it."

"I don't think any neutrals watching the game would have thought there were 17 places between us in the league."
